

Tribute to the Pathfinders

Inspired by fire and fired to inspire

You may not be fearless but you are brave
You may not be tearless, but you see past the haze
Through tears and blinding flames
Dust and smoke do not faze.

You beat the heat to lulling songs
And drumming feet
Clear and centred, like a spotlight in the night.
With steadfast hearts, sure are pure
Spearhead and shaft, like a tunnelling beam
Reclaiming from hell, your realm.

Saving lives and forging bonds of kinship
Blazing a trail of triumph and friendship
You are the pathfinders of glory and honour
We are proud of you this hour!!
